

THRO' KENTUCKY.

Thro' the grand state of Kentucky,
Where the "Old Home" got its name,
Where the fields are overflowing
With the yellow ripening grain.

Here tobacco plants are growing,
In the fields not sown with corn,
Tobacco plants—big as cactus—
Just as sure as you are born.

Yes, they're large as good-sized cactus,
Larger in our home-like view,
But it's a fine a grade as
Is that old "Kentucky Dew."

Here all people reap a harvest,
Money in bank from year to year,
All the green calamity howlers,
Lose their jobs when they land here.

Here the "dry" ways are the highways,
Built high and dry from rains and flood,
Here the "good roads delegation,"
Swear the roads are suit'n'ly good.

But of pikes and highways finest,
There's a "road" that suits my taste;
Tis the line of Solid Comfort,
And the trains let no time waste.

From Kentucky to St. Louis,
Operates this road of class,
Across the famous old "Green River"
On its roadbed smooth as glass.

Would you know the road I speak of?
Listen then to my advice,
For you'll need it in your business,
On your trip to Paradise.

In your travels to St. Louis—
Hurry, beat them under the wire,
"Get the 'Henderson Route' habit"—
Tis a good one to acquire.

—[Jack "Henderson" Gallagher]

WICKED MAN.

"Yes, my poor sister writes that she is unhappily married. She says she will never trust another man."
"But what in the world is wrong?"
"She says she married Harold to reform him, and finds that he has deceived her utterly—that he only ate five cloves to lead her on, and that he only knows two pages of Hoyle when it comes to cardplaying."—Chicago Tribune.

Quick Maturity.

She climbed the hill with me, Did Rose. A "bud" was she, And sweeter one no man has ever known! She got there out of breath, And nearly tired to death. In fact, instead of bud, the Rose was blown! —N. O. Times-Democrat.

ALWAYS AT IT.

Miss Gush—You say you girls think of nothing but men?
Mr. Crustycuss—I do. Why, you can't even laugh without saying, "he, he, he!"—Chicago Chronicle.

A Common Mistake.

"Sir!" exclaimed the injured party, "you stuck your umbrella into my eye."
"Oh, no," replied the cheerful offender, "you are mistaken."
"Mistaken?" demanded the irate man. "You idiot, I know when my eye is hurt, I guess."
"Doubtless," replied the cheerful fellow, "but you don't know my umbrella. I borrowed this one from a friend to-day."—Tit-Bits.

A VERY POOR CATCH.

Softman—I've never seen the girl yet that I'd care to marry, but I suppose some day I'll get caught.
Miss Perte—Oh! Whoever catches you will probably throw you back again.—Chicago Chronicle.

A Truth Brought Home.

"Do you think it's possible for one to learn anything by taking a course in that correspondence school he's conducting?"
"Oh, yes one is likely to learn what a fool one was to bother with it."—Philadelphia Press.

Down in a Coal Mine.

"I went down in a coal mine once, pop," said the actor's son.
"You did? And what did you see, my boy?"
"Why, I saw men wearing footlights on their hats."—Yonkers Statesman.

Percy and Lionel.

"Yes, it's pretty hard to tell just how to name babies so their names will be appropriate when they grow up. There was my Uncle David. He had two sons, and he called them Percy and Lionel. Percy is a blacksmith now."
"What's Lionel doing?"
"Lionel? Oh, he's doing well. Runs one of the biggest sausage factories in St. Joe county."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Not Any Old One.

Yes, hitch your wagon to a star, And hitch it to a bright one; But while you're hitching take good care To hitch it to the right one. —Cleveland Leader.

SAME OLD FALLDOWN.

O, dear, is it going to fall down again?
"Fall down again? Why, condemn the thing, it hasn't quit falling down the first time yet!"—Chicago Tribune.

At the Symphony Concert.

Me—What delicious! What harmony! What color! It is divine!
She—I am so glad you like it. I think it exquisite.
He—I could listen to it forever!
She—Why, what are you referring to?
He—That symphony that was just rendered, of course.
She—Oh, I thought you meant that beautiful gown in front of us.—Tit-Bits.

Aroused Her Suspicion.

Mabel—Why in tears? Doesn't the ring please you?
Helen—Oh, it is beautiful; but I fear that the stone is imitation.
"Why?"
"Arthur didn't say anything about returning it in case I don't marry him."—Town Topics.

THESE CHILDREN OF OURS.

She—What did papa say?
He—He said you were hardly old enough to think of marriage.
She—Humph! He's forgotten that I'm going on six.—Chicago American.

At It Again.

Sentimental Sue—Did you notice that fine-looking gentleman turn and look back after he passed me?
Tantalizing Tess—Yes. Isn't it funny how little it takes to turn a man's head?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

His Impression.

"Of course, you believe that polygamy is wrong," said the man who was discussing the Mormon question.
"My dear sir," answered Mr. Meekton, "it is not only wrong. It's foolhardy."—Washington Star.

Easily Arranged.

Mrs. Upley (to her general servant)—Gwendolen, I'm going to entertain six guests at dinner day after to-morrow, and I want you to have plenty of notice.
Gwendolen—Thanks, ma'am. I shall wear me blue satin waist, so you'll be all right if you don't wear nothin' to clash.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

As He Likes It.

"It's a cold, cold world," remarked the dismal citizen.
"Yes; that's the beauty of it," replied the coal baron.—Chicago Post.

A Continual Strain.

Many men and women are constantly subjected to what they commonly term "a continual strain" because of some financial or family trouble. It wears and distresses them both mentally and physically, affecting their nerves badly and bringing on liver and kidney ailments, with the attendant evils of constipation, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, low vitality and despondency. They cannot, as a rule, get rid of this "continual strain," but they can remedy its health-destroying effects by taking frequent doses of Green's August Flower. It tones up the liver, stimulates the kidneys, insures healthy bodily functions, gives vim and spirit to one's whole being, and eventually dispels the physical or mental distress caused by that "continual strain." Trial bottle of August Flower, 25c; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

Healthy Mothers.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Boesche's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes. It makes expectoration easy, and gives instant relief and refreshing rest to the cough-racked consumptive. New trial bottles, 25c; large size 75c. At all druggists.—W. T. Brooks.

FOR JUDGE OF COURT OF APPEALS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH APPELLATE COURT OF KENTUCKY—I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. As Circuit Judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As Judge of the State Fiscal Court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new Constitution, as well as to construe the present Constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of franchise under law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.
Very respectfully,
JAMES E. CANTRILL.

FOR CONGRESS.

We are authorized to announce W. P. Kimball, of Fayette county, as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from Seventh District, subject to the action of the district convention to be held in the city of Lexington on Thursday, May 12, 1904.

I am a candidate for re-election to Congress from this District, subject to the action of the Democratic party. I believe in getting as close to the people as possible, and it was my desire that a primary election be held to select a Democratic nominee for Congress, so that every Democrat could have the privilege of going to his precinct voting place and expressing his choice, but my opponents desired mass conventions at the county seat, and the committee so ordered.

I am now serving my second term as your Representative. I have endeavored, to the best of my ability, honestly, faithfully and conscientiously to do my duty. It is my highest ambition to secure legislation for the relief of the farmers, who have been so grossly imposed upon by unjust laws, and I feel that my experience has fitted me to render valuable service on this line, if I am permitted to continue to represent my District.

My official duties in Washington will prevent me from making an active personal campaign in all the counties of the district, therefore, I will have to rely on my friends to take care of my interest, which I have an abiding faith they will do. Trusting my service as a member of Congress meets with your approval, and hoping my candidacy will receive your valuable aid and support, I am
Very respectfully yours,
SOUTH TRIMBLE.
